

CRAFT BREWERS BOND PROGRAM

In order to operate as a brewery in the U.S., there are numerous types of financial obligations and permits that may require a bond. The process can be confusing as while bonds are regulated by the Department of Insurance, the process and underwriting can be very different. At George Petersen Insurance Agency, our bond department is well versed in these matters and can ease the stress of opening or operating your brewery.

Types of Bonds

The types of bonds that breweries may need include:

- TTB Brewer's Bonds
- Sales Tax Bonds
- Excise Tax Bonds
- Various State Bonds
- Customs Bonds
- Tax-Deferral Bonds
- Utility Bonds

Our Surety Department

George Petersen Insurance Agency's surety department can provide you with the bonds you need to support your operations. Our surety department manager, Cheryl Griggs, has over 30 years of experience in the surety industry, and his expertise, knowledge and relationships are instrumental in placing your bonds.

For more information, please contact:

Cheryl Griggs

Bond Department Administrator
707.360.4164 | cgriggs@gpins.com

